Companion To Senya:

Companion to Senya Senya Darklight, 1989 ETHS author Marty Campbell has produced a sensitive anthology of poetry and other writings by his friend Senya Also included are other tributes to this remarkable Caribbean poet The Art of Weaving Fate M. S. Dippel, 2026-03-24 Stealing a fate is not supposed to be possible And yet two apprentice Fateweavers find themselves chasing after one following the mysterious thief who somehow made their way into the sacred archives of the Great Library of Amareth Woven from the threads of fate fate tomes are no ordinary books but the divine vessels that contain the written destiny of kings commoners and everyone in between And sometimes they contain a fate that was not meant to be When the enemies of the Fateweavers emerge from the shadows the lines between friend and foe begin to blur and fundamental truths start crumbling like a book set aflame But then again who can say if that isn't exactly what the God of Fate has in mind Set in a medieval world The Art of Weaving Fate is a dark fantasy story with morally gray protagonists and factions It deals with the implications of controlling a person's fate and the effect of such powers on society as a whole
