The End of Gender Shari L. Thurer, 2013-01-11 Gender isn't what it used to be. Categories are collapsing. What was deviant for baby boomers has become mainstream for their offspring like the coed who realizes she's bisexual but after a period of adjustment shrugs her shoulders and gets on with her otherwise mundane life. Gender as we once understood it is over and gender bending is the new beat. Men sport ponytails and earrings and teach nursery school. Women flaunt tattoos and biceps and smoke cigars. In The End of Gender Shari L. Thurer argues that we are in the midst of a new sexual revolution. It is one where gender categories are blurring not just at the fringes of society but in mainstream lifestyle, media, fashion, and art. So why is this cultural phenomenon happening now? And what does it mean? In lively, non-technical language and with sometimes surprising case studies from her 25 years as a psychologist, Thurer answers these questions, bridging complex postmodern theory with cutting-edge psychoanalysis.

Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong, 2025-04-22 Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person? Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love, for comfort, or for both? What about arranged marriages? Does the one exist? How about soulmates? Will getting involved in casual sex or hook-up culture affect one's chances of eventually realizing happy, lifelong monogamy? Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy, lasting marriages? Can there be a way forward through the culture wars? Are dating apps any good? Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships. But what does this approach consist of, and which virtues, as there are potentially very many, should one focus on, particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts? What light might theology, history, and the human sciences, including sociology and psychology, shed on these matters? Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide-ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process of developing a five-fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts.
