Towards an Observational Economics of Business Behaviour Bruce W. Ross, 1996 Corporate Behavior and Sustainability Güler Aras, Coral Ingle, 2016-10-04 Companies can no longer expect to engage in dubious or unethical corporate behaviour without risking their reputation and damaging perhaps irrevocably their market position Irresponsible corporate behavior not only deprives shareholders of long term returns but also ultimately imposes a cost on society as a whole Sustainable business is about ensuring that entities contribute toward positive social environmental and economic outcomes Bad business behaviour is costly for stakeholders for markets for society and the economy alike To ensure that a company behaves well the buy in of the leadership team is crucial The full commitment of the board of directors in conjunction with the senior managers of the organization is required if an organization is to be socially responsible In this sense leadership does not reside with an individual the CEO within the organization but with all of those at the apex of corporate power and control Effective change management requires enlightened and capable leadership to instigate and drive the process of embedding a sustainable and socially responsible corporate philosophy and culture that supports good business decision making A profound understanding of the requirements of such a leadership process will help corporate managers become highly effective change agents Governance will be the main driver of this change For the economy and financial markets to become sustainable and resilient radical changes in corporate leadership need to take place Integrated reporting government regulation and international standards will all be important factors in bringing about this change As well as understanding the effects of corporate behavior on financial markets such an understanding is also now imperative in relation to the social and environmental contexts Strategic Outlook for Innovative Work Behaviours Hasan Dincer, Serhat Yüksel, 2020-08-27 This book presents various perspectives on innovative work behaviour focusing on problem recognition idea generation idea promotion and the realisation of these ideas It first highlights important corporate issues such as uncertainty performance management technological infrastructure and strategy development and subsequently presents studies that offer solutions Further the book evaluates the significance of research and development effective communication and corporate governance Lastly it discusses the implications of idea realisation examining resource dependence theory organizational trust and eco innovations My Revision Notes: AQA A2 Business Studies Malcolm Surridge, 2012-05-18 Get the best grades with My Revision Notes AQA A2 Business Studies Manage your own revision with step by step support from senior examiner Malcolm Surridge Use specific case studies to improve your knowledge of businesses processes and topics Get the top marks by applying business terms accurately with the help of definitions and key words Improve your skills to tackle specific exam questions such as data response with the help of self testing and exam style questions and answers My Revision Notes will help you prepare for the big day Plan and pace your revision with My Revision Planner Use the concise notes to revise the essential information Use the examiner s tips and summaries to clarify key points Avoid making typical

Stakeholder Thinking in Marketing Michael Jay Polonsky, 2005

Stakeholder thinking in marketing Stakeholder thinking is becoming a core part of marketing as well as other business related disciplines A search of the business source primer database found that prior to 1995 there are 58 articles using the term stakeholder in their title and 27 academic marketing related articles with stakeholder as a key term The interest in stakeholder theory has however grown rapidly between January 2000 and November 2004 there were 228 articles using stakeholder theory in the title and 140 academic marketing related journal articles that examined stakeholder issues In fact the American Marketing Association's AMA 2004 new definition of marketing expressly incorporates our responsibility to consider how marketing activities impact stakeholders Marketing is an organizational function and a set of processes for creating communicating and delivering value to customers and for managing customer relationships in ways that benefit the organization and its stakeholders Thus the AMA has recognised the core role of stakeholder thinking While there is an increased interest in stakeholder thinking in marketing an examination of the literature would seem to suggest that there is no unified view of how stakeholder thinking can be or should be integrated into theory or practice Many of the stakeholder works in marketing and in other disciplines still focus on the social and ethical impacts of stakeholders This may have been where much of stakeholder thinking initially gained its prominence but it is a broader strategic tool that can benefit a range of areas and was in fact the focus of Freeman's 1984 original work in the area This is not to suggest that the general strategic implications of stakeholder thinking are not being considered as an increasingly number of works are looking at stakeholder implications in regards to exchange networks relationship marketing and other issues related to strategy development The papers in this special issue have considered a range of varying perspectives including corporate social responsibility the impact of interacting with stakeholders relationship issues and broader discussions of stakeholder theory as a strategic tool These papers have taken a diverse range of perspectives including conceptual works case studies qualitative approaches and various empirical approaches to examining the issues of interest within various pieces The scope of papers included in the special as well as those not included identifies the breadth of relevance stakeholder thinking has for the application of all aspects of marketing theory and practice The question of how stakeholders and stakeholder theory can be considered in organisational activities and marketing theory is an issue that most certainly seems to warrant further consideration The works in this special issue have advanced this debate and identified some directions that could be considered Stakeholder thinking is however not necessarily a paradigm shift in marketing thinking although some might believe it is but rather it broadens existing concepts such as relationship marketing network theory organisational social responsibility and other areas Hopefully the papers presented in this special issue will encourage others to consider the inclusion of stakeholders into broader areas of marketing Any special issue editor has to thank a range of people for assistance with developing the special issue I would like to thank Audrey Gilmore and David Carson editors of EJM for allowing the special issue to be developed Their input through the process has been invaluable I would also like to thank the many authors of unsuccessful papers for submitting their work It was of course impossible to include all papers in the special issue but the breadth of coverage in regards to topics and geographic areas would seem to demonstrate the growing interest in stakeholder thinking within marketing Lastly it is imperative that I thank the reviewers without their assistance the special issue would not have been possible The following people reviewed papers for the special issue Anupam Jaju Gorge Mason University Bill Kilbourn Clemson University Bob Heiser New Mexico State University Catherine Elder eabode visi net Cathy L Hartman Utah State University David Waller University of Technology Sydney David Stewart Monash University Devashish Pujari McMaster University Dr Russell Casey Clayton State University Duane Windsor Rice University Edwin R Stafford Utah State University Felix Mavondo Monsah University Frank de Bakker University of Amsterdam Hamish Ratten University of Queensland J Tomas Gomez Arias St Mary s College of California Jeanne M Logsdon University of New Mexico John F Mahon University of Maine John Stanton University of Western Sydney Kamal Ghose University of South Australia Kelly Strong Iowa State University Kirk Davidson Mount St Mary s University Kim E Schatzel University of Michigan Dearborn Les Carlson Clemson University Linda McGilvray Massey University Marie Louise Fry University of Newcastle Australia Mary McKinley ESCM School of Business and Management Michael Beverland Monsah University Michael Hyman New Mexico State University Mike McCardle Western Michigan University Mike Reid Monash University Nick Grigoriou Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology Peter Scholem Monash University Rita Ferreira University of Navarra Romana Garma Victoria University Australia Ruhi Yahan Victoria University Australia Rujirutana Mandhachitara Long Island University Sabrina Helm Heinrich Heine University Duesseldorf Scott Vitell The University of Mississippi Sema Sakarya Bogazici University Srikanth Beldona University of Delaware Stacey Hills Utah State University Taras Danko National Technical University Ulrich Orth Oregon State University and William E Martello St Edwards University Michael Jay Polonsky Guest Editor Previously published in European Journal of Marketing Volume 39 Number 9 10 2005 Managing Knowledge Resources and Records in Modern Organizations Jain, Priti, Mnjama, Nathan, 2016-12-21 Modern organizations and businesses are growing rapidly every day With these advances comes the need for more progressive forms of knowledge management and record keeping techniques Managing Knowledge Resources and Records in Modern Organizations is a pivotal reference source that discusses the current trends technologies and ethics associated with knowledge management Featuring comprehensive coverage on a spectrum of topics such as leadership roles in knowledge sharing knowledge governance electronic resources for public sector reform and record keeping for information in public and private sector organizations this publication is a comprehensive resource for educators professionals practitioners academics and researchers interested in the latest
