Space and the Body Simon Dwyer, Rachel Franks, Reina Green, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This book With out Trace Inter Disciplinary Investigations into Time Space and the Body unpacks many of the issues that surround the idea of trace what we intentionally an unintentionally leave behind as well as how trace can help us to move forward In particular this volume looks at how an inter disciplinary approach can suggest new ways of seeing and subsequently exploring interconnections between time space and the body The papers within this work accomplish more than tracing a theme a theory or discipline within the study of time space and the body Moreover the collection does not simply trace past debates about the relationship between the three Indeed the interdisciplinarity of this collection will it is hoped suggest other ways of seeing the field and of tracing new paths through it Exploring those new perspectives and new paths will undoubtedly enrich future thinking about the interconnections between time space and the body     The Christian Leader , 1930     Risk Criticism Molly Wallace, 2016-05-10 Risk Criticism is a study of literary and cultural responses to global environmental risk in an age of unfolding ecological catastrophe In 2015 the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists reset its iconic Doomsday Clock to three minutes to midnight as close to the apocalypse as it has been since 1953 What pushed its hands was not just the threat of nuclear weapons but also other global environmental risks that the Bulletin judged to have risen to the scale of the nuclear including climate change and innovations in the life sciences If we may once have believed that the end of days would come in a blaze of nuclear firestorm we now suspect that the apocalypse may be much slower creeping in as chemical toxins climate change or nano technologies run amok Taking inspiration from the questions raised by the Bulletin s synecdochical nuclear Risk Criticism aims to generate a hybrid form of critical practice that brings nuclear criticism into conversation with ecocriticism Through readings of novels films theater poetry visual art websites news reports and essays Risk Criticism tracks the diverse ways in which environmental risks are understood and represented today     Contemporary Women Playwrights Penny Farfan, Lesley Ferris, 2014-01-23 Breaking new ground in this century this wide ranging collection of essays is the first of its kind to address the work of contemporary international women playwrights The book considers the work of established playwrights such as Caryl Churchill Marie Clements Lara Foot Newton Maria Irene Fornes Sarah Kane Lisa Kron Young Jean Lee Lynn Nottage Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Caridad Svich and Judith Thompson but it also foregrounds important plays by many emerging writers Divided into three sections

Histories Conflicts and Genres the book explores such topics as the feminist history play solo performance transcultural dramaturgies the identity play the gendered terrain of war and eco drama and encompasses work from the United States Canada Latin America Oceania South Africa Egypt and the United Kingdom With contributions from leading international scholars and an introductory overview of the concerns and challenges facing women playwrights in this new century Contemporary Women Playwrights explores the diversity and power of women s playwriting since 1990 highlighting key voices and examining crucial critical and theoretical developments within the field Literature and the Glocal City Ana María Fraile-Marcos,2014-07-17 The modern city is a space that can simultaneously represent the principles of its homeland alongside its own unique blend of the cultures that intermingle within its city limits This book makes an intervention in Canadian literary criticism by foregrounding both globalism which is increasingly perceived as the state of the art literary paradigm and the city These are two significant axes of contemporary culture and identity that were previously disregarded by a critical tradition built around the importance of space and place in Canadian writing Yet as relevant as the turn to the city and to globalism may be this collection s most notable contribution lies in linking the notion of glocality that is the intermeshing of local and global forces to representations of subjectivity in the material and figurative space of the Canadian city Dealing with oppositional discourses as multiculturalism postcolonialism feminism diaspora and environmentalism this book is an essential reference for any scholar with an interest in these areas Platform and Pulpit Aids ,1883 The Fire-baptism of All Flesh, Or, The Coming Spiritual Crisis of the Dispensation Samuel Borton Brown,1882 Medical Investigator ,1874 The Poetry Review Stephen Phillips,Galloway Kyle,1914 The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson,William Theophilus Davison,1923 Ever after is a lie CJ.
