Dating Undated Medieval Charters:

Dating Undated Medieval Charters Michael Gervers, 2002 Many of the millions of medieval charters surviving in European archives and repositories were written without any reference to a date of issue The proliferation of undated charters in England and Normandy indicates that the custom was especially peculiar to lands under Norman rule but charters issued by major religious houses are often also undated The DEEDS Project at the University of Toronto has developed a computerised methodology for dating charters relying on analysis of vocabulary syntax and formulae In this volume an international group of scholars concerned with the problem of charter chronology consider the potential of the computerised methodology compared to other more traditional methods of dating such as identification of names changing in wording and address and handwriting Discussion also touches on regional differences in the production use and distribution of charters and on ways both manual and mechanical to date and analyse the content of large numbers of them MICHAEL GERVERS is Director of the DEEDS Project at the University of Toronto Canada Contributors MICHAEL GERVERS RODOLFO FIALLOS MARJORIE CHIBNALL V RONIQUÉ GAZEAU BENOIT MICHEL TOCK NICHOLAS VINCENT GEORGES DECLERCQ ZSOLT HUNYADIR ATTILA ZSOLDOS MARIA HILLEBRANDT TREVOR CHALMERS LAZSLO VESZPRMI P D A HARVEY ANDRAS GRYNÆUS JOZSEF PALFY Charters and Customals of Shaftesbury Abbey, 1089-1216 N. Green, 2005-07-14 This book draws together a collection of essays looking at the ways in which charters and charter scholarship in different areas of Britain and Ireland highlighting comparisons and contrasts in charter production and use The book shows the crucial importance of charters as sources for understanding the history of royal administration and more broadly the perceptions and portrayals of kingly power as well as developments in written culture The Acts of Welsh Rulers, 1120-1283 Huw Pryce, 2010-10-15 Now republished with minor corrections this volume provides the first comprehensive collection of charters letters and other documents issued by native rulers of Wales from the early twelfth century to the Edwardian conquest of 1282 3 that extinguished independent rule The Abbey of Cluny Giles Constable, 2010 The essays published in this volume cover many aspects of the history of Cluny from its foundation until the end of the twelfth century Four of them are published here for the first time and others appear in a revised form The three articles on Cluny in the tenth eleventh and twelfth centuries constitute a brief survey of Cluny at the height of its prestige and influence Others such as the articles on Cluny and the Investiture Controversy and the First Crusade deal with the influence of Cluny outside its walls Yet others are concerned with the relations between Cluny and other orders between Cluny and its dependent houses and between the abbey and town of Cluny The remainder study the internal history of the abbey the administration legislation and finances of the order and its development and problems especially in the twelfth century Orderic Vitalis Charles C. Rozier, Daniel Roach, Giles Edward Murray Gasper, Elizabeth van Houts, 2016 First full length collection on one of the most significant and influential historians of the medieval period Latin Classics in Medieval Hungary Előd Nemerényi, 2004-01-01 The first comprehensive study on the influence of Latin classical texts and traditions in medieval Hungary based on philological and historical analysis of eleventh century sources The author proves that the Latin classics had a stronger impact on the formation of Latin literacy in medieval Hungary than it has been acknowledged before The four chapters of the book The Cathedral School The Admonitions of King Saint Stephen of Hungary The Deliberato of Bishop Saint Gerard of Csanad The Monastic School provide important contributions to the philological study of Medieval Latin and the classical tradition in medieval Central Europe Introduction to Medieval History Paolo Delogu, 2002-09-26 An introduction to the sources methods and theories most used by historians this book explores the origins of the idea of the middle ages and its development in Renaissance and modern European historical discourse the problem of periodisation and the principal themes of modern historiography Speculum Sermonis Georgiana Donavin, Cary J. Nederman, Richard J. Utz, 2004 This anthology of essays Speculum Sermonis reveals how sermons impact upon a range of disciplines and how the methodologies of different disciplines inform sermons The Haskins Society Journal, 2006 Resourcing Sources K. S. B. Keats-Rohan, 2002 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2001 Studies and Texts - Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, 1955 From Ducatus to Regnum Carl I. Hammer, 2007 Bavaria was a very important country during the early Middle Ages Its territory included much of the modern German state but also reached across the Alps into what are now Austria and northern Italy Bavaria thus occupied a strategic position between the rival kingdoms of the Franks and the Langobards It was ruled by powerful dukes who had close political and personal relations with the Frankish rulers but who also vigorously resisted attempts to limit their own sovereignty Bavaria's independence was ended in 788 by Charlemagne who deposed his cousin Duke Tassilo Charlemagne's son the Emperor Louis the Pious then established Bavaria as the first monarchy east of the river Rhine for his own son Ludwig the German This is the first full study of the entire evolution of Bavarian rule from the mid sixth century into the early ninth century It explores the changing strategies adopted by its dukes and then its first king to establish their authority and maintain their autonomy in face of evolving challenges to their rule An Epilogue continues the story into the early tenth century Carl I Hammer graduated from Amherst College B A and the University of Toronto Ph D and also studied at the universities of Munich Chicago and Oxford After a career in international business with Westinghouse and Daimler Benz he is now retired He has published two other scholarly books on early medieval Bavaria and numerous articles in academic journals in N America and Europe He lives in Pittsburgh

Mostert,2004 Compared with most of Continental Europe North of the Alps the introduction of writing in East Central Europe Bohemia Poland and Hungary took place with a considerable delay Much is known about East Central European uses of writing although only a fragment of this knowledge is known outside the region Gathered by historians palaeographers and codicologists diplomatists art historians literary historians and others this knowledge has hardly ever been studied in the light of recent discussions on medieval literacy and communication Work done in the Czech Polish and Hungarian traditions of scholarship has never been subjected to a comparative analysis Furthermore the question of the relation between writing and other forms of communication in the region remains largely unexplored The volume serves a double purpose For the first time a collection of contributions on medieval literacy in East Central Europe is put before the forum of international scholarship It is also hoped to further discussions of modes of communication literate behaviour and mentalities among scholars working in the region Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),2002 Aspects of Power and Authority in the Middle Ages Brenda Bolton,Christine Meek,2007 Concepts of power and authority and the relationship between them were fundamental to many aspects of medieval society The essays in this collection present a series of case studies that range widely both chronologically and geographically from Lombard Italy to early modern Iberia and from Anglo Saxon Norman and later medieval England to twelfth century France and the lands beyond the Elbe in the conversion period While some papers deal with traditional royal princely and ecclesiastical authority they do so in new ways Others examine groups and aspects less obviously connected to power and authority such as the networks of influence centring on royal women or powerful ecclesiastics the power relationships revealed in Anglo Saxon and Old Norse literature or the influence that might be exercised by needy crusaders by Jews with the ability to advance loans or by parish priests on the basis of their local connections An important section discusses the power of the written word whether papal bulls collections of miracle stories or the documents produced in lawsuits The papers in this volume demonstrate the variety and multiplicity of both power and authority and the many ways by which individuals exercised influence and exerted a claim to be heard and respected
