Contemporary British Art Grant Pooke, 2012-11-12 The last few decades have been among the most dynamic within recent British cultural history Artists across all genres and media have developed and re fashioned their practice against a radically changing social and cultural landscape both national and global This book takes a fresh look at some of the themes ideas and directions which have informed British art since the later 1980s through to the first decade of the new millennium

In addition to discussing some iconic images and examples it also looks more broadly at the contexts in which a new post conceptual generation of artists those typically born since the late 1950s and 1960s have approached and developed aspects of their professional practice Contemporary British Art is an ideal introduction to the field To guide the reader the book is organised around genres or related practices painting sculpture and installation and film video and performance The first chapter explores aspects of the contemporary art market and some of the contexts within which art is made supported and exhibited The chapters that discuss various genres of art practice also mention books that may be useful to support further reading Extensively illustrated with a wide range of work both known and less well known from artists such as Chris Ofili Rachel Whiteread Damien Hirst Banksy Anthony Gormley Jack Vettriano Sam Taylor Wood Steve McQueen and Tracey Emin and many more

Inefficient Mapping Linda Knight, 2021 Working from a speculative more than human ontological position Inefficient Mapping A Protocol for Attuning to Phenomena presents a new experimental cartographic practice and non representational methodological protocol that attunes to the subaltern genealogies of sites and places proposing a wayfaring practice for traversing the land founded on an ethics of care As a methodological protocol inefficient mapping inscribes the histories and politics of a place by gesturally marking affective and relational imprints of colonisation industrialisation appropriation histories futures exclusions privileges neglect survival and persistence Inefficient Mapping details a research experiment and is designed to be taken out on mapping expeditions to be referred to consulted with and experimented with by those who are familiar or new to mapping The inefficient mapping protocol described in this book is informed by feminist speculative and immanent theories including posthuman theories critical cultural theories Indigenous and critical place inquiry as well as the works of Karen Barad Erin Manning Jane Bennett Maria Puig de la Bellacassa Elizabeth Povinelli and Eve Tuck and Marcia McKenzie which frame how inefficient mapping attunes to the matter tenses and ontologies of phenomena and how the interweaving agglomerations of theory critique and practice can remain embedded in experimental methodologies Publisher's website
