Controversial Issues In Multiculturalism:

Controversial Issues in Multiculturalism Diane De Anda, 1997 This new addition to the Controversial Issues series focuses on issues facing those who practice with multicultural populations These debate style essays feature issues such as whether programs and services in social work should be culture specific to better meet clients needs whether professional social workers should support affirmative action as a means of securing equity for their clients and whether the therapy process can be effective when the helping professional and the client are of different ethnic groups For professionals working in the field of social work Controversial Issues and Social Problems for an Integrated Disciplinary Teaching Delfin

Ortega-Sánchez, 2022-09-30 The scientific literature has been showing that the teaching of controversial topics constitutes one of the most powerful tools for the promotion of active citizenship the development and acquisition of critical reflective thinking skills Misco 2013 and education for democratic citizenship Pollak Segal Lefstein and Meshulam 2017 Misco and Lee 2014 It has also highlighted however the complexities risks and interference of emotional reactions in learning about sensitive controversial or controversial historical geographical or social issues Jerome and Elwick 2019 Reiss 2019 Ho and Seow 2015 Washington and Humphries 2011 Swalwell and Schweber 2016 Recent studies have advanced in the analysis of strategies employed by teacher educators in teaching controversial issues Nganga Roberts Kambutu and James 2019 Pace 2019 and in the curricular decisions of teachers about this teaching Hung 2019 King 2009 These developments confirm the appropriateness of discussing or developing deliberative skills and conversational learning as the most appropriate strategy for the didactic treatment of controversial issues Claire and Holden 2007 Hand 2008 Hess 2002 Oulton Day Dillon and Grace 2004 Oulton Dillon and Grace 2004 Myhill 2007 Hand and Levinson 2012 Ezzedeen 2008 The promotion of discussion on specific social justice issues has also been approached from the use of controversial or documentary images in teacher education contexts in order to question what is happening or has happened in present and past societies Hawley Crowe and Mooney 2016 Marcus and Stoddard 2009 In this context the aim of this contributed volume is on one hand to understand the discourses and decision making of teachers on controversial issues in interdisciplinary educational contexts and their association with the development of deliberation skills On the other hand it seeks to offer studies focused on the analysis of the levels of coherence between their attitudes positions and teaching practices for the teaching and learning of social problems and controversial issues from an integrated disciplinary perspective Multicultural Curriculum

Transformation in Social Studies and Civic Education Kenneth J. Fasching-Varner, Kerri J. Tobin, Norma A. Marrun, Iesha Jackson, Christine Clark, 2021-07-12 This book focuses on multicultural curriculum transformation in social studies and civic education subject areas The discussion of each area outlines critical considerations for multicultural curriculum transformation for the area by grade level and then by eight organizing tools including content standards relationships with and among students and their families and evaluation of student learning and teaching effectiveness The volume is designed to speak with PK 12 teachers as colleagues in the multicultural curriculum transformation work Readers are exposed to things to think about but also given curricular examples to work with or from in going about the actual concrete work of curriculum change This work supports PK 12 teachers to independently multiculturally adapt existing curriculum to create new multicultural curriculum differentiated by content areas and grade levels and by providing ample examples of what such multicultural transformed social studies and civic education curricula looks like in practice

Social Issues in Living Color Arthur W. Blume, 2017-02-16 Offering fresh and exciting approaches to solving global problems this book creatively views challenging social issues through the lens of racial and ethnic psychology As the demographic makeup of the American population continues to evolve understanding and addressing the psychological needs of ethnic minorities in the United States becomes more important to the overall health and well being of society This three volume set is the first publication to explicitly tackle social issues from the perspective of racial and ethnic psychology It uniquely presents racial and ethnic psychological perspectives on topics such as media criminal justice racism climate change gender bias and health and mental health disparities Volume one introduces readers to the basic scientific concepts of racial and ethnic minority psychology and then examines the intersectionality of race ethnicity gender and sexual orientation It also addresses how race and ethnicity affect communication styles leadership styles and media The second volume discusses the experiences of individuals within racial and ethnic minorities including overt racism covert racism and colonialism and addresses how ethnic minority psychology plays a role in our educational system poverty global climate change and sustainability The third volume covers ethics in health and research considers the causes of health and mental health disparities and identifies diversity initiatives that can improve the health and well being of all citizens not just racial and ethnic minority citizens

Beyond Multiculturalism in Social Work Practice Kui-Hee Song, 2004 Drawn from experience this in depth case study presents an integrated approach to social work practice with culturally linguistically diverse clients to show how theories of postmodernism and multiculturalism can be applied when working with Korean immigrant families BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Challenge of Teaching Controversial Issues Hilary Claire, Cathie Holden, 2007 Teaching about controversial issues is crucial but also very challenging This text dissects the nature of a specific controversy and offers practical strategies for helping students work through possible solutions

Multicultural Issues in Social Work Patricia L. Ewalt, 1996 Encyclopedia of Multiculturalism Susan Auerbach, 1994 A general student reference of uncommon interest examining American history and society through the experience of racial ethnic national religious and other marginalized groups including children disabled people and gays and lesbians whose experiences and views have often been excluded from the mainstream of American history The encyclopedia focuses on key multicultural concepts events people places and organizations in alphabetical entries from the A Philip Randolph Institute to the anti Mexican American zoot suit riots of 1943 The shortest entries are brief 100 word biographies of significant people past and present Signed articles on major subjects such as colonialism sexual harassment assimilation and civil rights contain up to 5 000 words Many entries are accompanied by photographs maps diagrams and charts Volume 6 includes a time line multicultural resource directory filmography bibliography subject list and index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Education for Multicultural Social Work Practice, 2004 These writers speak to the heart of sensitive matters concerning cultural competence in social work education and practice The editors have constructed a collection of in depth discussions on multicultural social work education as it relates to numerous intersecting areas of expertise including direct organizational and community practice curriculum development field education and international social work The text examines how current research and movements in multiculturalism can be applied to intervention planning with special populations and integrated across the social work curriculum The chapters discuss complementary historical and contemporary paradigms for applying cultural competence theory to social work education and practice Readers will find this work an informative and timely contribution to the discourse on social work education and working within a diverse society Page 4 of cover

Journal of Education for Social

Work, 2002     Teaching Children's Literature Christine Leland, Mitzi Lewison, Jerome Charles Harste, 2013 Offers a fresh perspective on how to implement children's literature across the curriculum in ways that are both effective and purposeful. It invites multiple ways of engaging with literature that extend beyond the genre and elements approach and also addresses potential problems or issues that teachers may confront.

Practicing Multiculturalism Timothy B. Smith, 2004 Practicing Multiculturalism facilitates effective multicultural practice in therapy by helping the reader internalize the principles of multiculturalism. As an edited book, Practicing Multiculturalism represents a wide variety of perspectives while providing greater depth of coverage than is usually possible with a single author volume. The book's focus on the internalization of multicultural principles is aided through discussion of 1) emotional reactions in multicultural scenarios, 2) values and assumptions, and 3) power, privilege, and contextual factors that impact multicultural practice. Unique content includes chapters devoted to 1) spiritual and religious diversity including Islam, 2) activism and organizational multicultural competence, 3) classism, 4) an overview of the multicultural movement in mental health including past achievements and current controversies, 5) children's issues in a family context, 6) international students and immigrants, and 7) an ecological contextual approach to assessment and treatment.

Social Issues and Contradictions in Canadian Society B. Singh Bolaria, 2000

Group Rights David Ingram, 2000 Ingram philosophy Loyola University brings a variety of current social dilemmas together in a mutually illuminating way. He examines the concept of legal equality in a multiracial society by considering issues such as self-governance for Native Americans, the rights of immigrants, affirmative action, and racial redistricting. He also tackles the problem of social injustice in a global setting by assessing the negative impact of free trade policies on the rights of groups to self-determination and cultural integrity.
